Dear parents,

We would like to inform you that we are issuing a schedule for a progress check of our little learners. Please note, this is not an exam, but rather an opportunity to assess where your child currently stands—whether at the sky, mountain, or stream level. It is simply a way to gauge progress and identify areas where further focus may be needed as we wrap up the session.

Kindly understand that this assessment is not meant for evaluation, but to guide us in supporting each child's growth and development.
